

Pralor Le Peille

5* semi-detached chalet for 8 - steam room and jacuzzi

Designer chalet with hot tub and steam room is the perfect place to make holiday memories

About Pralor Le Peille ...

Le Peille is a stylish newly-built semi-detached chalet in an old farm, L'Alpage du Pralor, between the beautiful village of Manigod and the ski station of La Croix Fry.

With excellent sound-proofing, this stunning secluded, but not isolated, property is in a south-facing chalet, the last property in a lane off the main Manigod road, so you won't be disturbed by passing traffic.

You'll need your car, as it's a 1km walk to the ski bus stop in the winter, 4km to La Croix Fry and 3km to the shops and restaurants of Manigod. However, the advantage of this quiet location is the stunning view across the Manigod valley to the mountains beyond.

In the summer the farm is surrounded by lush green pastures, which are flat around the property - a great place for children to play. There are also stunning views of the sunset at the end of each day from the terrace to the side of the property or the jacuzzi.

Local craftsmen were brought in for the construction, using traditional methods and stone from the old farm where possible, to ensure the building sits comfortably in its surroundings.

Larger groups of up to 16 wishing to stay in this area might wish to consider booking Le Peille with Le Nova, which sleeps nine.
